The T-12 Speak:

Divine Beings of Great Light and Great Love and Great Presence: there is great presence that has abundantly come forward for thee through the great manifest realms of all Divine illuminated presence.

Agenda and Control

We come forward first today with Presence! Presence. Presence. Presence. Presence.

When one embodies Presence, when one walks with Presence, when one offers Presence, then one cannot be present with what you might call agenda or idea of outcome. These two energies, that are seeking great control of your planet, the agenda and the control of an outcome, have gained wondrous momentum, and, indeed, are a demonstration and a manifestation of the extraordinary, unlimited expansive energy of All-ness.

To move forward with an agenda is to limit the expansion.

To have the need to control an outcome is to limit your expansion, and to limit expansion is to start the four journeys all over again.

For some months ago, in your linear time frame, we shared with you the four journeys¹, the four journeys of this experience, and we offered to thee the recognition that the repetition of a cycle is one of the journeys.

And it is also one of the gifts; is it not?

*To repeat any cycle in any form is to offer to oneself the gift of the expansion all over again.
And to be able to breathe through the repetition of a cycle is to be able to free one from the repetition of a cycle.*

The Energy of Presence

In the presence of your Divine magnitude, in the great presence of your Divine expansion is great freedom. Great freedom.

Presence is not an inactive energy. Presence is an active energy. An active energy.

You must call forth Presence.

You must be Presence.

Live Presence.

Experience Presence.

Delight in Presence.

Move with Presence.

Live with Presence.

Speak with Presence.

Act with Presence.

Breathe again with Presence.

Eat with Presence.

Speak only with Presence.

And, simply relax into Presence. Presence. Presence.

The Energy of Agendas

Beloved Ones, when you are outside the window of Presence, agenda appears. And, agenda has with it many, many, many forms, and nuances, and manipulations, and experiences.

Agendas seek only to create another agenda, thereby seeking another agenda, thereby seeking another agenda. Do you see the cycle of repetition in the agenda energy?

When the mass illusion creates mass hysteria, then agendas become held up as a way out, as a need to have a pathway from the hysteria or the chaos or the illusionary principles that seek to disturb your Presence.

When one is in the eternal connection of Divine Presence, then one is unable to be disturbed by any energy.

You may say, “Oh, I am only disturbed by a certain energy or a certain being or a certain phrase or a certain experience.”

We invite thee to recognize that any disruption has come from the space of the lack of Presence, and that all destruction is a great gift because with each destruction, it offers you a greater anchorship of Presence.

To be disrupted is to be able to come forward with the great illuminated love and recognition of, Ah, Presence. Ah, Presence.

If you were to imagine², if we were to offer you a word, if you were to imagine your world with every being living, expressing, eating, loving, fulfilling and knowing Presence, could an agenda even come forward?

We do not need to answer this for you for your heart has already brought forward the gift of the response.

SRI & KIRA

DIVINE ILLUMINATIONS: A SERIES OF TIMELESS ESS-SEE-NAH REVELATIONS

To see, to witness, to understand Presence, is to be the Pillar of Light for all who seek to remember their own non-disturbed presence of being.

Disruption creates growth. Disruption unsettles because it takes one from a pattern and moves one into divine presence and illumination.

Seek not to resist disruption. Seek, instead, to embrace Presence.

The Action of Presence

As you move forward in your experience of this Divine illusion and beautiful and wondrous expansion, your ability to call forth Presence is but a breath away. Just a breath. A breath.

Breathe now, Beloved Ones. Presence.

We wish to offer you the recognition that as you hold Presence, you become most active, not inactive.

To hold Presence without the active Presence energy is to, indeed, have an agenda of what Presence is.

"I will just sit and be," has in and of itself, its own agenda; a need to control an outcome, for in the denial of the experience of any form of disruption, it is always easier to sit and be and pretend it has not happened.

Better to dive into the energy of disruption than to sit and ignore it was ever present.

SRI & KIRA

DIVINE ILLUMINATIONS: A SERIES OF TIMELESS ESS-SEE-NAH REVELATIONS

And as you dive, it is how you navigate the dive that comes forward with the greater presence.

Do you belly flop into the pool of destruction?

This could be painful; could it not? It could be very painful.

Or do you walk out to the end of the high board without any fear, grasp your hands in a prayer position, and gently say, "I am yours," and feel the flow of the Universe Guide you into the pool.

How you enter is how you ignite, and how you swim in the energy is how you express your gifts of light and love and presence.

The Soil of Judgment

We wish to talk again about this energy of agenda. In your world now on this planet of density experience, there are limitless agendas, yet only a little over six billion of you, yet limitless agendas.

Think about the multiplication energy, the infinite amplitude of agenda energy. It is a miraculous energy in the aspect that it will propagate itself perpetually. It will continually propagate and it will find welcome soil and fertile soil in the hearts and minds of those who seek judgment, who carry judgment.

All agenda is birthed on the soil of judgment.

And as judgments are the fertile soil of the agenda, the emotional body, left unchecked, is the fertile soil of the judgment.

To offer to yourself the great wisdom that comes from the ignited presence of a divine heart of ever infinite expanded illumination is to free yourself of any form of dogmatic tradition that seeks to hold you captive.

SRI & KIRA

DIVINE ILLUMINATIONS: A SERIES OF TIMELESS ESS-SEE-NAH REVELATIONS

Another of your journeys³, was it not, to break free of dogmatic traditions?

Dogmatic traditions truly are carrying the energy of agenda regardless of the emotional energy that may be placated to those who question the agenda.

Take a breath...Presence.

Crystalline Connectivity

We simply seek to offer to you the opportunity to step into ever-greater Presence, to experience ever-greater freedom! And as our eyes connect with your eyes today, we have been igniting through a 33rd Crystalline Dimension realm great seeds of divine light for those who seek to receive this light.

You may feel or see around you now great illuminated white energy.

You may simply feel it.

And as you feel it, you may first notice your lungs or your breath.

Do not hold your breath.

Try to be spacious with your breath, because, Beloved Ones, the opportunity to create the container of illuminated presence cannot be done through the words of any being.

It is a tangible experience of Divine Light that can be tangibly received, welcomed, loved or dismissed. It is always your choice.

Experiencing Crystalline Transmissions

When the crystalline realms come forward to connect, as they have been recently, the world of density feels this in many ways. It is the same, Dear Ones, as your beautiful body temples when you begin cleansing them with water.

If you have eaten junk food, as you say, junk food after junk food after junk food laced with chemicals that do not greatly assist your expansion, when you begin to take a moment and bring Presence to the body, oftentimes you begin to feel discomfort; do you not?

You say, "I have slight headache," because you are purging an energy from the body that it has been accustomed to that was not serving the highest receptivity of Divine Light.

You may feel tired as these energy fields release. You may feel sluggish. You may have the need to simply drink more water, drink more water, drink more water in the recognition that, as you clear, you begin to truly see again, and your Presence restores.

And we offer this example because your planet now is receiving great vibratory crystalline light, and she is clearing that which has not serves her, so that she may get better. This is not that difficult to understand. It is simply outside the agenda.

When a universal energy of pure crystalline light and love is transmitted directly to thee, what does your emotional body feel? What does your mind do? Pay attention. What does your breath do? Pay attention.

Anything that is unlike divine joyous receptivity is the beautiful gift of the overlay of agenda that is still in your tissues. This is not a shortcoming. This is not something that has been done wrong. It is the recognition that you have been navigating density and that you have done it very, very well.

To release all need to judge is to release the fertile soil that gives the agenda its limitless cycle of repetition.

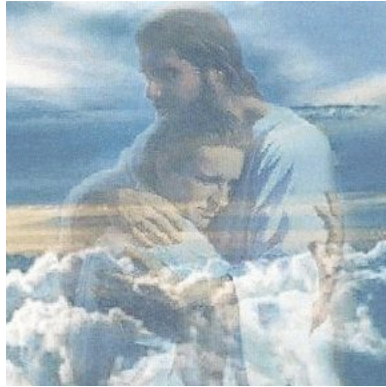

You, Beloved Ones, right now, now, now, now, now, now, now, right now, must decide:

Is our co-creative, limitless experience ready to move forward with the agenda energy, or do I seek to stabilize Presence?

SRI & KIRA

DIVINE ILLUMINATIONS: A SERIES OF TIMELESS ESS-SEE-NAH REVELATIONS

The reason, if the mind seeks a reason, that we offer this to you now is because your world is needing reassurance. She will continue to act out until the reassurance comes back to her.

She is purging, Beloved Ones, as the same your bodies would purge when you cleanse them. Great floods of water will cleanse your body. Why would it be any different for your planet?

Great floods of water. Do not lament. That which is cleansed, in the process of cleansing, will always find a new way of being.

Take in a deep breath.

The Expansion of Presence

We offer to thee simply the recognition that you are here on this glorious expansion journey of divine reconnection through your own choice. The choice of an individ-u-will is made from the spirit -- we use this word -- from the spirit of the heart, not from the mind of the heart.

And when the spirit of the heart reignites while you are in form, Presence becomes an effortless moment, an effortless gift, an effortless experience.

Your Presence is the only -- we wish to say this again -- your Presence is the only ignition that will ignite others.

Presence, Beloved Ones, is an action.

Presence is a movement.

Presence is a divine recognition that all is in exactly the way it has always been, is now, and will always be.

Presence does not demand the repetition of a cycle and yet is able to witness all cycles.

Presence is a flow.

Presence is abundance. Presence is joy. Presence is love. Presence is you. You are Presence.

SRI & KIRA

Discovering the Peace of Presence

Within the container of your sacred environment on Beloved Gaia, there will be much disturbance energy that will come forward from the convergence of many agendas.

When many agendas converge, there is a struggle for the agenda to emerge.

And when there is a struggle for agenda to persevere agenda, there is no Presence, and in a lack of Presence there cannot be peace.

You seek peace, begin with the Presence.

When you discover your Presence, when you hold your Presence, when you live with Presence, when you love with Presence, peace is always present.

To experience an agenda that seeks to struggle for its survival is outside the experience of peaceful Presence, and so do not struggle with it. To struggle with it is to create even greater disparity within the harmony of your own being, your own life.

Can you step outside of it without a judgment of what you feel you must do about it?

If the mind must have a doing principle, and indeed, the mind loves doing principles, the mind likes to wake you up with its doing principles, it likes to guide your hands with doing principles, it likes to guide your life with doing principles.

If you can guide your life from the doing principle of Presence, funnel the energy of the mind, the doing principles of the mind, into the Presence energy, and you will discover before you mountains of golden light, abundant streams of flow, communities of wholeness, not victim-ness, and the experience of expanded Presence.

SRI & KIRA

DIVINE ILLUMINATIONS: A SERIES OF TIMELESS ESS-SEE-NAH REVELATIONS

YOU ARE the Divine Presence

In the eyes of the Presence to the Presence, in the recognition of the one and the one and the one and the one, you transcend all perception and step into Divine Presence...You.

Yes, you are Presence. You have always been Presence.

And in your moment, in this one speck of linear time, in a world of Divine experience, before you now is a choice, whether you are conscious of or not, that you must make.

Do I support the agenda energy, or do I step into Presence energy?

And it is important, Beloved Ones, to recognize all choices are Divinely illuminated. Each choice will sustain the choice of another, for those who step fully into Presence, their Presence will ignite others into Presence, and for those who step into the energy of the agenda, they will assist those who have chosen Presence to continue choosing. Each helps another. All have divine experience.

In your world, the agenda seeks to save those who do not align with an agenda.

Let go of a need to save any.

You are already saved, if the doing mind must hear those words.

You came here. You are already saved.

It is the playground of the Universe to dance through a life on a planet of experience, to smile gently as you would move to your next experience, celebrating that you fully experienced.

SRI & KIRA

DIVINE ILLUMINATIONS: A SERIES OF TIMELESS ESS-SEE-NAH REVELATIONS

And as the container of this experience of density comes to a great moment of Divine culmination with great expanding energies coming forward, it is your Presence that will dance you through it in whatever form of dance you enjoy, for there is no agenda around the dance.

*If you like to tango, you tango. If you like to rock and roll, you rock and roll.
It does not matter. What matters is the dance.
What matters is the celebration.
What matters is that you are present for this experience.*

*Whether you are conscious of your Presence or not, it is the inescapable truth of life in form.
How you call forward your Presence is a gift of inescapable experience of form.*

*We love you, and you are loved. We salute you. We hail to you. We feel you.
We delight in you.*

*From the rays of the Divine Crystalline Light, we have this moment through these eyes to see,
and see through you, and for this we are grateful.
Our only presence is to be in your presence. We love you.*
