

Message Four of Twelve Activating the Divine Fragrance of the Breath of Life Through Wisdom Teacher Sri Ram Kaa & Master Lady Kira Raa Delivered at TOSA Ranch, NM, USA January 27, 2007

Archangel Zadkiel speaks through Master Lady Kira Raa:

Yes! WE...ARE...here! IT...IS...with a fragrant hello. Yes! Fragrance! Yes! What does it mean to truly be fragrant? What does it mean? Yes! Enjoy. Yes!

We offer you the fragrance of what you would call, the Divine Gift of Love. Each is fragrant with their own loving essence of BEing. Indeed, what does it mean to be fragrant? To BE fragrant invites the opportunity to BE the energy.

Not to TALK about it. Not to rationalize it. Not to offer it a convenience such as, "I will be in the energy if it is convenient for me."

To BE fragrant with the energy is TO BE the fragrance of the Breath of Life.

In every moment, in every moment...in every moment...YOU...ARE...the fragrance of the Breath of Life. When you greet another, how do you greet them? Do you ever notice fragrance when you meet?

Are there some you meet and the fragrance of Life immediately lets you know, perhaps life is not so vital? And then there are others, and the fragrance of Life is most vital! Delicious indeed! You may even wish to just jump into the fragrance, no? Yes!

We offer this now as IT...IS...most imperative for YOU to KNOW: in the fragrance of Life, you claim your own divine breath.

You say, oh my goodness, how can breath and fragrance be connected? We say how can they not be?

Beloved beings of this realm, your breath is a fragrance! IT...IS...the fragrance of God. The fragrance of life. The fragrance of ALL that is divine resurrection.

Ascension Recognition

Many say often, give me the date, time, when, where, give me advice! Yes. What if we were advice-less? My goodness, yes. We offer this as it is most important to re-cognize that YOU...ARE...in the period of rapid, rapid, rapid *escalatory ascension recognition*¹.

What does this mean? Ascension recognition. It means YOU...ARE...in what you call linear time, the year of 2007², in the cycle of the Lion. Are you the Lion? Or, are you still pussy-catting around? Yes! Which are you?

We invite you to pay attention. When a lion roars, we assure you their breath is most fragrant. Yes! And the Lion we pay attention to, will we not?

IT...IS...how you roar that creates the attention. There are many ways that you can roar in this world. In this time, 2007 through the time you call 2009³, there are, indeed, many energies that are coming forward now. There will be many fragrances that will be present. Not all of them will be so pleasant. And. Perhaps to some, they will all be pleasant.

Activating the Divine Breath of Life

This is the quest. If you wish to be on a quest, perhaps IT...IS...to re-cognize the divine fragrance of ALL breath. The divine re-cognition of life!

¹ This Insoulment was re-released on February 01, 2021 which is the moment where the first concentric experience of time is creating the first infinite spiral energy. This is another confirmation of the sharing from Archangel Zadkiel as February 2021 also births the energy of Zadkiel's shield as the carrier of the Five Medicines of Consciousness.

² Allowing for the time compression of 2021 and the opening on 8-8-2020 of the ACTIVE rising Lion's gate energy, this would "time" exactly with February 2021 as the current reference.

³ This would equate to February 2021- February 2023.

The divine re-cognition of WHY...YOU...ARE HERE...NOW. Many, many, many of you, are being gifted choices...NOW...to activate your fragrance of breath. Or! To activate another existence of BEing. Let us share about this for a moment.

In this world, in this way, in this moment, gaze at your hands. You have hands? Cool, huh? Yes! We just wanted you to double-check YOU...ARE...in a body. There IT...IS! OK!

In this world of being, breath is essential, is it not? IT...IS...a great gift! IT...IS...another way to feel. Remember! YOU came here to feel. YOU came here to touch. Go ahead, give a little poke⁴ to each other. Yes! YOU...ARE...real. YOU...ARE...here. YOU...ARE...in density. Little pokes are fun, are they not? Yes! Oh so fun. IT...IS...important to remember this is why you came! As you do this, and as you touch, perhaps you have touched much. Perhaps you have touched many experiences.

Is breath not another caress? Take in a breath. Feel the caress. Each breath is God's caress. Each breath is the opportunity to remember how loved YOU...ARE. Each breath brings you closer to your own God essence of Knowing, BEing and doing.

Take in another deep breath. Yes!

Appreciation for breath is another way you feel. Indeed. It is often said: they have taken their first breath, and they have taken their last breath. What about all the breaths in between? Today I celebrate a hundred kajillion-million breaths! Good! Each one a gift from God, each one a divine love, each one divine flow.

When you gaze at each other and take in a deep breath, you share the Love of God⁵.

Find someone to look at⁶. Go ahead, look! As you find someone to look at, breathe.

⁴ During the insoulment Archangel Zadkiel reached out and "poked" Sri Ram Kaa on the upper arm with Kira's finger. This is a demonstration of the essence of the body...to feel and experience.

⁵ This is the activation of the heart of the Avesa energy, the conscious breath as divine love of the ALL...all-ways!

⁶ This includes gazing at your-self in a mirror!

Was it good for you? Yes! It is important to remember this!

Sharing the divine breath of Love and God in every breath, in every conscious breath, will shift your re-cognition as to why you have this beloved body to begin with.

And so, take in this divine breath with each moment. Take in the divine breath with each other. Take in the divine breath and remember how fragrant YOU...ARE.

Holding Divine Essence

Now, we wish for you to know. Do you enjoy roses? We use the fragrance of rose as an example. All you need do is call it forth in your breath. I AM the fragrance of rose. Breathe in the fragrance of rose as you invite and allow the energy and vibration.

Now, we offer you a very simple way⁷ that you can manifest breathing in the fragrance of any divine essence. It begins with your heart. YOU ARE the divine essence!

Your heart is the primary divine essence⁸.

- 1. Hold out your hands like this, (demonstrates palms out in front of body, facing up, pinkies side-byside). Then you place your focus like this, (gazes intently into palms).
- 2. For a minimum of 17 of what you call seconds, hold the energy of the divine essence that you call forth. It can be rose, frankincense, myrrh, it does not matter, 17 seconds of divine concentration.
- 3. Feel it growing in this beautiful collection device known as a body.
- 4. Then feel it literally go through the palms of the hands and melt into your cells, your tissues, your blood, your body. Relax and let it melt and go through you.
- 5. Smell it! Feel it! Know it!
- 6. YOU...ARE...it.

⁷ The six steps have been enumerated for ease of connecting with the process.

⁸ This is the ignition of the Medicine Journey of the Heart...the opening to the five medicines of Consciousness.

So, each morning, do you have 17 seconds to call forth divine love, divine fragrance? Can you bring your attention and say: "I will gift myself with 17 seconds to call forth the frequency of divine love. I shall emanate the fragrance of divine love in ALL that I AM and ALL that I do." Knowing that all day you need do nothing else except remember every time you breathe, IT...IS...God loving you. IT...IS...God kissing you. IT...IS...God celebrating you. IT...IS...God honoring YOU with every divine breath.

Why would you ever be in a rush to give that up? Think about it. To stop breath is to stop your Divine Love. Many in your world now are challenged with breath, are they not? There are more now that are challenged with the ability to connect with love than have ever been. What a glorious gift. What a great time, because for each that stops breathing, those around them remember how important breath is. And so, IT...IS.

Training the Breath

Let it be the divine gift. It is not a tragedy, IT...IS...a great illumination. Remember that your divine breath will carry you many places. Wherever you wish to go. Beloved children, to move between the realms, to shift between the dimensions, you must activate your energy from the breath of this world.

You activate the energy deep within. You activate the energy and the breath. The purer the breath, the greater the breath, the more profound the breath, then the breath becomes you, and you no longer need to breathe.

Understand what we say. When you can fully illuminate yourself with the fragrance of divine breath, right here, then YOU...ARE...the breath. The concept of breathing is no longer required. This takes some time. We have offered over many months or what you call years, many, many ways to train your breath⁹. You see dear ones; you must train the breath.

The breath is like a wild child. The breath goes here and there without direction. The breath is able to continue even when all of your attention is somewhere else, is it not? And, when your attention is somewhere else, how is your breath? Is it shallow? Yes! Is it full? Do you only pay attention to fragrance when it grabs your attention? There are many ways fragrance grabs your attention, are there not? Ooh, that smells good, ooh that smells awful, does it not? Can you see the gift?

Become breath! Invite every ounce of YOU to BE the fragrance of divine breath.

Beloved children, in these coming times as we are sharing with you now, in the culmination of ALL of your experiences of Life, of lifetime after lifetime after lifetime, after lifetime, after lifetime of preparation, YOU...ARE...Here, Now! You have graduated, take it in! You can hang the tassel from the cap, YOU...ARE...there. IT...IS...important.

The only school you may wish to re-enroll in, is the school of your divine love. Do you need to remedialize the re-cognition, or are you able to stand firm in your declaration of knowing how amazing YOU...ARE?

Accepting it, knowing it, letting it go. Dearest beloveds, in this time now, if your brain engages the visibility or the manifestation of the visibility of eons of prophetic information that was seeded here to intentionalize¹⁰.

Paying Attention to Divine Recognition

We invite you to pay close attention to what we are saying. It is the "time" to break free of every-thing you were told is the truth of what will happen, by those who were seeded into your consciousness to tell you it would be a certain way.

YOU...KNOW...the truth already! Where do you wish to put your attention?

Simply because so and so, in year so and so, said something would happen in this time, that would lead to the demise of this world...where would you place your attention?

¹⁰ This is a direct reference to the massive rise in conspiracy and belief in the inevitability of a "catastrophic outcome" and the danger of this "seeding". Another stunning confirmation of the timing of this re-released insoulment.

Dearest children, perhaps the gift of these energies was to assist YOU to arrive at the re-cognition that there is only one truth. Your hand on your heart finds it every time. Where you put your attention, in this time now, is the single most critical event you can offer to humanity.

Every moment you add terror to terror, terror increases. Every moment you offer energy to love, love increases. Every moment you add energy to a joyous culmination of beings of light celebrating divine recognition, living in harmonic convergence within divine blessed community, you give it energy. Every time you see a bomb and get energy about the bomb, you give it energy, and more bombs are built.

Beloveds! YOU...ARE...at the crest of a great title wave, indeed! A great one.

Where do you wish to be?

Do you wish to be riding the wave, or do you wish to be the wave? It is up to you in how you decide to come forward now. However, more than ever, become absolutely conscious of your breath, and the fragrance of your breath.

Is your breath fragrant with peace? Is your breath fragrant with love? Is your breath fragrant with the recognition of the joyous time that we are beholding, or is your breath raging? Is your breath filled with anger and righteousness?

Dearest children, as you know, it is only doubt that separates, as it is anger and frustration that repel.

When you find yourself angry, and coming from anger, you will be most amazed, with how easily you repel everything you want to happen. It's really a wonder-full experiment.

And! When you find yourself illuminated with the fragrance of divine bliss, everything...everything transcends.

Your life, your light, your health, your vitality, your abundant flow.

The Culmination Cycle of Divine Energy

Are you afraid of shift? Some are. Some say bring it on, bucket loads, then they are quite literally drowning in shift. Beloved ones, re-cognize that YOU...ARE...not alone! Millions and millions and millions of you are ready to stand in the unified voice of fragrant breath. This does not happen through anger and injustice. Anger and injustice will only repel the energy that you are calling forward. And! As all-ways, we wish for you to KNOW that ALL choices are, indeed, perfect.

Remember. Those who don't breathe give you the gift of remembering breath. Honor them for being here and being so present. Those who cause you to anger gift you the moment to remember whether you choose to be anger, or choose to be centered in divine fragrant bliss. IT...IS... all-ways only a breath away.

We love you divine ones. There is much at hand, and the time is indeed, now. YOU...ARE... power-full. YOU...ARE...abundantly power-full. The cycle that you are in now is a culmination cycle of divine energy.

Pay attention to where your heart goes. Pay attention to where the mind tries to control. Remember, if you "but if" yourself, you will, indeed, lose the breath of life. But if, what? Why not just be.

Either BE in the joyous bliss of divine breath or BE in the frustrated anger of shallow breath. Make a choice, and honor all those who do. IT...IS...power-full to make the choice. IT...IS...power-full. Let yourself breathe fully in the divine fragrance that YOU...ARE. We are. Every time we get to be in this body, we breathe. Fun, fun, fun. Yes!

WE...ARE...complete. YOU...ARE...complete. BE fragrant and breathe. We love you deeply. Many, many blessings. We enjoy BEing with you! Yes! We love you! We are all-ways with you. We are so proud of you. Breathe. Be fragrant. Meet each other in wholeness. Let your life be breath. We love you dearly.
