

2017: Active Resurrection through 2022: Divine Wisdom, New DNA! *Through Sri Ram Kaa & Kira Raa

The Cosmic Essene of Crystalline Light speak through Kira Raa

Namaste! Hello, and bright greetings, bright blessings. Bright wondrous hellos!

We are a unified stream of Divine Cosmic consciousness that arrives here into this body of form through a vast network of opening and closing portals of light and energy. This vast network is one that exists in what you would call quantum space. This is a space that many are starting now to discover through processes such as quantum locking, or quantum – we are going to use the word teleportation or transportation – for this is much more accurate.

We share this with you now because there are many who are finding us for the very first time. Yet, you are not finding us for the first time, you are simply reconnecting with us in this form.

There is an active process of reconnection that is coming forward now onto your planet. And many have journeyed...very far...to come forward now with this Divine re-connective principle.

Who are we?

For you, for many of you, we are you.

You may simply call us the Cosmic Essene, or more accurately the Cosmic Essenah of the Crystalline Light.

We have many other names.

This is the name that we offer to thee that will activate within thee now, the cosmic dormant consciousness of DNA...of strands and codes of recognition and memories of your Divine Presence.

Imminently, there is a great and vast time, and for lack of another word, a vast moment ahead. Yet the fluidity of all moments is indeed what creates the illusion of time.

And within that illusion, the illusion of the time, which is a collection of the moments, comes forward the comprehension of density through the mind of form.

This comprehension of density is an energy that is a vast warehouse of multiple births in one area. This area is not defined by a geographical map, rather it is defined by an energy stream that pulses out into many forms of density.

Your area can consist of many locations within a single stream of Divine energy emanations. This is where your pulse beat, which in this world is known as a heart beat, where your pulse beat is called to be, this is where the energetic draw brings you forward to, for a collection of Divine experiences.

For many, this is a vast network.

In this line – let us use the words line of energy – If your earth, your Gaia was here, then we originate here.

Yet, we are in a central sun experience that has many clicks around this central experience.

And you are able to experience more the broader it goes.

SRI & KIRA
ARCHANGELIC INSOULMENT
The Ascension Pathway: A Cosmic Journey of Remembrance

If this is the central sun experience that houses the warehouse of the Divine collective knowledge of your soul, (referring to the center hand being held up), and you come this far out, (showing the other hand extending outward from the center), then you go around that in that way.

So obviously, this area is more vibrationally or energetically aligned here thereby pulls most of its resources from here. (referring to close proximity to the central sun.)

Each ring of experience in a direct beam of consciousness will always carry this with it. However, based upon where you are on the ring, are you closer to the vast outer reach, Or, are you closer to the central sun?

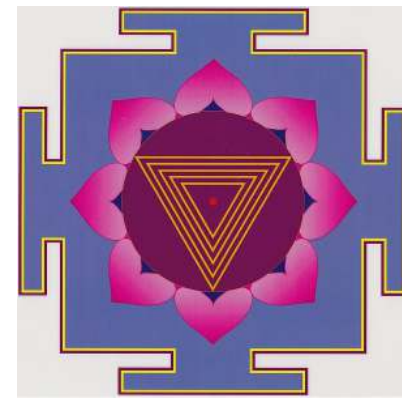

This is very much the essence of what in your world has been defined as the cycles of the Yugas. Kali Yuga is the current cycle and each yuga carries a divine and unique pulse. Each Yuga carries with it all of the information, the infinite flow of the information. Yet, the Kali Yuga is here, (showing it at maximum distance from the Central Sun), and through the pulse beat of the Kali Yoga – and we say yoga – intentionally, to assist you to move through the concept of Yuga...Yoga...You!

In this essence now, everything has been misunderstood, even the presence of the Divine Kali herself!

The Divine Kali herself is so misunderstood.

She is similarly just as misunderstood as is the fallen angel known as Lucifer.

As are all of the other myths that have been misunderstood.

Divine Kali Yantra

Because of the collection of energies that seek to separate you from the central Divine energy of the pulsing beat of your heart, there have been many, that love so much, that as in the Bible it says, they would sacrifice their only son.

And was it not then, when the Archangel Zadkiel, the Gatekeeper of this being in form, stepped forward to stop the hand of Moses to say no?

The truth is that death does not demand the sacrifice of the joy.

The true argument if you must, or most aptly, the true presence, is the Divine, let us say war within, the battle of that which knows. The yearning to be there in contrast with the recognition of here, and the forgetfulness that the journey itself, is a Divine joyful dance.

This is the important gift that has come forward now.

That those that would offer the sacrifice to be so misunderstood, to gaze at, for one example, a Kali, a Ma Kali, to see her holding a head – severed – holding it up high, a blade dripping blood, wearing a skirt of severed arms, bare-chested and blue before all that many would claim she viciously, slayed. Until the Divine Blue Shiva rests at her feet and calls her home.

What is the true symbology of this? Go into your heart and ask this question to see deeper. Consider that one would claim the energy of, I will sacrifice everything for you. I will let go of all the illusions, because is not the body the greatest illusion?

To sever the head is to free the mind!
To wear the armor of the body, as true armor, is to understand that it is merely a servant of the Divine soul. To rest and be supported by the Divine that is always the outreach to you from your sincere heart presence.

Many who are offering great truths are misunderstood now. And, there are many that are calling out for direction.

They demand to be told the future to assist them.
They cry out to be told what is happening.
They say: *tell me what I need to know,
month by month by month. Give me exact dates.
Give me exact information.*

We hear you and we understand your inquiry!

The exact information we offer to thee, is the information that ignites the Divine computer within your own soul's framework. Yes! We delightfully offer to thee this information.

In the coming time ahead, in what you call in linear time 2-0-1-7 in one calendar. This date has many other dates associated, affiliated with it. This is a year, a section of the beam of energy that you are playing within that will reorganize at the level of cells.

What does this mean?

It means everything must reorganize!

Everything will find a Divine reference, a recognition.

There will be many, many, many events that will call forward recognition.

This is a blessing.

To be at a time of Divine blessing, to open up your vision to see so many that are appearing false, is to open up to see that there is truth when one is open to seeing it, freeing it from within and bringing forward the Divine energy of your own resurrected wisdom.

You are ready, and this coming year and through the year 2-0-2-2, will set in motion the next one thousand of years.

It is now your time to remember that the beam of consciousness of your multitude of experiences has opened for you. Through a series of Divine portal interactions, connections and flows, the experience is open as you are open.

As you anchor and stabilize your own availability, those you seek are responding, have responded, and will become more visible with each passing moment.

It is a Divine year ahead when you remember that so many have given so you can be awake. So that through your receiving this gift, then you can give, so that others may be awake.

All are in the Divine Dance of their journey, and each is having the experience needed for their Divine reclamation of the Divine wisdom that each being carries within. Celebrate this time. Celebrate when you connect. Celebrate being together. And celebrate the release of the doubt, the anger, the fear, the control. Celebrate that your ego can breathe.

Relax. Dance and Be. And so it is. We love thee. We are grateful to thee. We have so much more to share with thee. And we say, Namaste.
