Archangel Zadkiel speaks:

Yes! Hello!

Beloved ones of great Light, great Love and great Joy. It is with buoyancy that we come today and say HELLO to you! For indeed it is a glorious moment of great hellos is it not? Indeed it is.

Gaze into the Natural Environment

Gaze, beloved ones, beyond us now. Gaze into the gloriousness of that which is beyond those who are sitting here with you in human form. Gaze into the natural environment that is before you. Gaze into all natural environments all the time.

For as you gaze into the perception of the environment of nature, what you will discover is the Crystalline magnitude, the molecular structures, that are indeed vibrating with great Light and Presence that are assimilated into what you call trees, mountains, lakes, streams, all of the natural effects that thereby bring a joyous release to a mind of a world that seeks to be held captive.

Warriors of Light: Commitment to the Journey

Hello! We are happy to be here with you today. Beloved ones of great Light, did you know that you are a warrior?

Did you know that to continue on this journey, that to have been on this journey, that to say YES to this journey, demands that you have the molecular energy of the warrior.

Now for some of you, you may say, “Oh...but I am such a pacifist, how could I be a warrior?”

We say beloved one, let go of the definition of this world of warrior. For indeed, we utilize this phrase, this word, this palabra¹, because it is the only word in your definition of vocabulary that can explain one who has commitment to the journey.

A warrior has commitment to their journey, do they not?

A warrior must continue... for if a warrior hesitates, if a warrior stops, if a warrior turns and runs, there is no way for the warrior to continue. And when a warrior says, “I cannot continue”, then indeed the energy for which the warrior has committed loses momentum, loses just a little bit of its ability to Be.

TO BE!

Take a breath. Yes, beloved ones!

And as you do this, and as you recognize this, we wish for you to understand that there is a great... we shall use the word... tipping point upon your experience of this world now.

In this moment right now. Yes! Right now.

And in this right now moment, it is a gift to recognize, to remember, to know,
I AM a warrior of Crystalline Light.
I AM a warrior of Crystalline Light.

And as a warrior of Crystalline Light, there is already the commitment.
You have already said YES.
You have already done the dance.
You have already celebrated.

You have already jumped on the bus to earth-school – yes you have! And you are here because you are a warrior of Crystalline Light.

The History of the Warriors of Crystalline Light

Now, as a warrior of Crystalline Light, we wish to take you alllll the way back. Come with us now... little story, okay? Come with us all the way back to Tu'Laya². To Tu'Laya.

When the beings of divine Crystalline Light organized in a molecular structure that existed out of the great Love of the expression of Light; and as the expression of Light existed in great Love; and as glorious and magnificent energies and expressions came together for many, many, many eons. It is outside the boundaries of your time zone understanding. However, we wish to offer you what would be just perceived as the energies of the magnitude of this experience.

And as you were, and as you are, and as you have all-ways been. Throughout the experience of Tu'Laya.

Right when this energy culminated, was when, through the decision to continue -- you must understand -- through the decision to continue, the glorious decision to continue, which was in and of itself one of the first moments of greater expression, the decision.

Through the decision to continue was the... let us say... the Light and the Light! Little joke.

² Tu'laya was the first expression of beings of light in density, you can learn more in 2012 You Have a Choice and 2012 Atlantean Revelations

SRI & KIRA

THE MIRACLE OF SERVICE SERIES : 12 STEPS TO ASCENSION

Because each aspect of the Light created within itself a recognition of the continuation of the Light.

And the first aspect of the Light that we speak of is the aspect that said:

"Let us return now. Let us continue on back to where we have come. This has been perfect. It is perfect. There is no need for us to refract. There is no need to go further."

And then the other aspect of Light said:

"Ohhhh let us continue this journey with greater expression. We want to discover Allness, for in the discovery of Allness we shall discover Oneness³. Look at this glorious expression. Look at these glorious aspects. All of the facets of the jewel, ready to be explored and moved forward with."

And so, the aspects continued. ALL of the aspects continued.

And as all of the aspects continued, from Tu'Laya through Sularia through to Gaia, you are in the O'laha moment. And in the O'laha moment, in that moment, many of the aspects of the energy of the one Light, because they are all of the one Light, have now come forward in a glorious dance so to speak.

And in this glorious dance, all, ALL of the present aspects are allowing themselves to be heard, experienced, recognized. And with this, and in this, and through this, as your culminating experiences come forward again -- for you have culminated before -- as these culminating experiences come forward for you now, it is a great and glorious moment for the beings of divine Crystalline Light to recognize themselves and to once again ignite the warrior energy that began the propulsion to begin with.

Take a breath.

For many of you, you may say:

"I do not know if I understand this, but yet something inside of me is jumping. Little molecules and little particles, I feel them moving. I feel the energy. I feel all of it."

And for some of you, you many say: "Ah! I remember, I understand, I get it."

All of this is perfection.

It is indeed a divine moment when a warrior remembers why they are indeed in the energy of the experience. For a warrior to know who they are, for a warrior to Be who they are, is a great and vital experience of the aspect of commitment.

³ The greater context of Allness and Oneness is beautifully revealed through the Lessons of Oneness Series

What is Commitment

What is commitment?

What is commitment?

Some may say: "Oh my goodness, commitment! This is a word we do not want to look at."

For indeed in your experience of your world now, as you know, many, many, many energies are distorted in a way that is far from their... let us say... aspect experience.

And so, what is commitment?

Commitment is the recognition that deep beyond the body, deep beyond the egoic filter that assists the body to navigate density, is the Crystalline Light, the pure energy that propels thee. It is within this pure energy that propels thee that ALL beings of Light find their experience.

The experience itself has long been determined prior to this incarnation and many others. It is not a determination per lifetime so to speak.

It is a cosmic connected energy shared by all beings of Crystalline Light with an aspect that is unique per the Indi-vidu-will⁴ to, in and of itself, bring forward, fully create, fully experience, and then reunify with.
How exciting is that?

We wish to applaud! It is that exciting.

And so the commitment is to recognize this aspect of thy beingness...The aspect of the Crystalline Light.

To be able to recognize that when one surrenders to the egoic filter, when one surrenders to the physical filter, when one surrenders even to this beautiful, stunning, glorious, natural environment, one has lost commitment to Crystalline Light.

⁴ the Indi-vidu-will is the first Lesson of Light from the Archangelic realm and found in 2012: Atlantean Revelations

SRI & KIRA

THE MIRACLE OF SERVICE SERIES : 12 STEPS TO ASCENSION

The Crystalline Light is the energy of the recognition that the illusion is a great gift. A playground for a child to play in. And when the child has had enough play, it is the moment where the Master opens their hand and says, “It is time now to come home. It is time for dinner. It is time to rest. You have played. You have played well, and now it is time to rest. Now it is time to come home.”

And this is where the commitment of the Crystalline Light warrior comes forward and says: “Yes, I understand this is all play. I understand that this is the grand expression of the divine illumination offering all aspects perfection in their committed energy for the reunification of one glorious energy.”

Take a breath.

The Light Virus: Freedom or Entrapment?

What is the virus we speak of⁵?

We wish to offer this to you so that you may understand, and then we wish to offer to you MY shield, THY shield, as a great gift for all of those who choose to receive it.

Beloved ones, great and glorious angels of divine Light and illumination, through the Tu'Layan expression, and at the moment of the divine decisions, there was indeed, there WERE indeed, many... we shall use a word only for you to understand... let us say, “self-destruct devices” put in place that were intended to prevent reunification, and intended to create an entrapment energy.

Your entire existence is at a moment of divine choice.
Do you choose freedom or do you choose entrapment?

Freedom or entrapment?

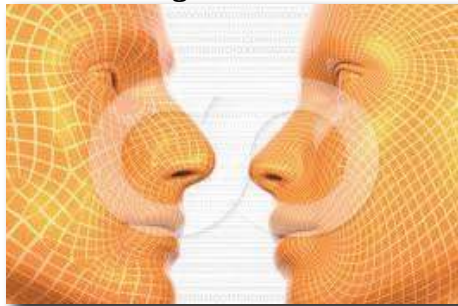

⁵ 24 hours prior to the revelation of this discourse, Archangel Zadkiel delivered a message about a virus affecting light-workers. This message can be found at www.SriandKira.com

SRI & KIRA

THE MIRACLE OF SERVICE SERIES : 12 STEPS TO ASCENSION

And you may say: "Oh but of course I choose freedom! Why would anyone choose entrapment?"

And we say, it is not as simple as the human brain may want to see.
It is indeed much more than that because these energies are brothers to each other.
These energies gaze into their eyes and see the same thing.
These energies are birthed of the same mother.
These energies are so similar that it is only in our offering to you of the words of your planet that we can even begin to assist thee to see the discernment.

Freedom or entrapment?

Entrapment feels like freedom when one is initially entrapped.
And freedom can feel like entrapment when one initially feels freedom.

This is the discernment of the divine one that can recognize that within your own glorious molecular structure is indeed the recognition that to be preoccupied with this illusionary experience in all of its glorious beauty, to be concerned or ... let us say... organized around a central unit of hate, or anger, or distrust are all entrapment energies. Many in your world now are celebrating because there anger has found a way to be celebrated. Many in your world now, organized against freedom fighters so to speak, warriors of Crystalline Light, because they challenged their entrapment attitude.

Entrapped beings of Light will want to be... let us say... reassured.
We seek for a word here... we wish to offer another word. Coddled.

This is interesting word, coddled...they wish to be coddled in their discomfort.
"It is okay. I agree with you. Yes you can, yes yes. It is another. It is them. It is us. It is whatever."

These are entrapment energies because they limit the expansion of Light.

They entrap one and they say:

"Look at this glorious planet, look at your beautiful body. Why would you ever want to leave it? Why would you ever want to go? You must stay. You must do everything you can to stay. Dig in! Be here!"

These are entrapment energies, and they are the brother of freedom because they do feel as if they are free.

SRI & KIRA

THE MIRACLE OF SERVICE SERIES : 12 STEPS TO ASCENSION

What is Freedom?

There are great illusions of what freedom is on your planet now. And most of what is being displayed as freedom is entrapment. They are brothers to each other and so they are very, very, very fascinating to discern.

What is freedom?

What is freedom?

Freedom is the recognition to lay the egoic filter, to lay the attachments, to lay all of it aside and to see, feel and experience Crystalline Light in all expressions.

In your world now, there is a great movement to entrap. And this is what we refer to as the virus.

When one is truly seeking freedom, initially they will feel as if they are almost losing their breath. And oftentimes there will be beings around them of the pervasive entrapment energy who make them feel as if they are no longer free, that they are making a choice that would be incorrect.

*Freedom initially feels like entrapment.
Entrapment initially feels like freedom.
These are important discernments.*

Terrorism and Entrapment

We wish to address a powerful energy in your world now that is a creation of entrapment energy and wraps around it the energy of what many call freedom.

It is the invention of what you call terrorism.

*Spiritual terrorism in your world now is at a greater momentous moment than indeed it has ever been.
Spiritual terrorism entraps many through an illusion of freedom.*

By empowering spiritual terrorism, then in the name of so-called freedom, entrapment begins.

SRI & KIRA

THE MIRACLE OF SERVICE SERIES : 12 STEPS TO ASCENSION

This is all we wish to offer you on this because only your heart can unravel this.

Only your coding of Crystalline Light can fully understand this,
IF you have already not been infected by the virus that seeks to keep you entrapped.

And if you have accepted this virus – because you can only accept it – it cannot invade you without your knowing. In one experience or another, you have accepted it, often through a large judgment or resistance energy that comes through a polarized experience toward another.

You must look at yourself.

Have I polarized toward another because I have felt egoic, because I have felt that my ego was not being catered to, because I felt wronged?

These are the energies that are very, very powerful on your planet and as a spiritual warrior, as one who is a warrior of divine Crystalline Light, this is what you must be most committed to in the recognition that the moment, the moment, these energies come up...the moment you carry anger, hate, distrust and share this anger, hate and distrust with others, and as many as you can, you yourself become not only the virus, you become the giver of the virus.

And through your ability to initially feel empowered through this energy, you feel free,
yet you are creating greater entrapment.

Breathe in beloved ones, for we offer this information to you because your entire world is at the moment of choice.

Freedom or entrapment?

THE MIRACLE OF SERVICE SERIES : 12 STEPS TO ASCENSION

*The two brothers are standing on the field together.
They are staring at each other.
Freedom on one side of the field, entrapment on the other.*

*And the two brothers are staring at each other saying:
“How did we get here? We are brothers!”
And rather than running into each others arms and saying yes we are one, they are trying to find ways to navigate this planet.*

The Gift of the Shield of Archangel Zadkiel

And so we offer to you today MY shield, OUR shield, the shield of the Divine violet illuminated energy with the central Blue Jewel of the Heart. Within the physical form of this one that we speak through now⁶, we now go to this heart, and we rip open for you, and invite you to gaze at this ignited Blue Jewel.

From this Blue Jewel great violet presence is coming forward to you now. The full illuminated cross of the divine energy of one energy. Freedom and entrapment are one energy. The two brothers reunited. The full Presence, Light and energy of divine illuminated Love is pouring through to you now.

Rip open your heart and open up the Blue Jewel. Call forth all energies of a virus that would protect you from your own divinity to be released.

And ask thyself, “Where have I carried resentment and judgment? Where has my ego become so powerful that it took me from my true committed course, for I AM a great warrior of divine Crystalline Light or I would not Be.”

⁶ Reference to Kira Raa, at this point they literally “open the heart” of Kira Raa to release this energy.

Feel this Gift.

We offer this Gift to you with great Presence...with great Light...with great Love...and with great Reverence.

Remember beloved one, you are not a victim.

You are a conscious co-creator!

And, as a conscious co-creator you are that powerful...to call forward BOTH the gift and the choice.

For those of you who say: "But we do not need protection, why do you offer this to us?"

We are not offering it to you as protection.

We offer it to you as a divine tool...an opportunity to remember who you are.

Ignite your Blue Jewel of your heart.

Feel the violet energy of the divine cross of unification coming forth from thee so that thyself is the shield.

This is the gift of the energy that we offer you today.

The Abode of the Warriors Revealed

It is with great mercy and compassion that the abode of the warriors that has indeed been sealed on your planet and was only available to be opened at the moment, at the moment that it was necessary, is now open.

And those who carry this shield, it is your key to entry to this abode.

This abode is right here.

You are staring at it⁷.

Gaze at the small mountain that is right before you and it rests right above it.

In this world, this abode is above a mountain of gold that has been held sacred by a great race of beings that are part of the original race of beings⁸ on this planet.

This abode of the warriors has always been there and so this small mountain carries big energy.

It has for eons been a great place of Presence, Power, and Recognition.

This is why our Crystalline abode is next to it on the water.

The water and the mountain together.

We have come in great numbers now and will stay here for the next what you call calendar year. In a great enclave of energy... receiving all of the energy of the warriors of the ignited shield to be able to find Presence, Freedom, Release, and to let go of any remnant virus energy.

For this next what we call year we will remain anchored here. We will hold this Presence, and at the end of that calendar year, we will know where our Presence is most needed next.

You are a warrior of great Crystalline Light.

You may choose to carry a shield of divine memory.

It is a moment of great expression on your planet now, for the two brothers are on the field together and they are staring at each other.

Will they run together with open arms, or will they turn away?

We love you. We are here for you as you are here now. Have no fear. Have no fear. This is a moment that you have known about literally forever. And so it is. And so it shall be. And so you are.
