The Revolution of Reunion

Through Wisdom Teacher Sri Ram Kaa & Angelic Oracle Kira Raa

Delivered at TOSA Ranch January 28, 2006

Archangel Zadkiel Speaks:

Yes! I am here. Good afternoon! It is a great joy to be here with all of you today, for indeed the revolution has already begun!

What is a revolution? You say, "Oh my goodness Zadkiel, you give us all this information so quick, so soon." We say why not, what are you waiting for? (audience laughter)

It is important to understand what a revolution is. There are many, many, many ways that this word is used. Know that the revolution we speak of, is indeed, the Reunion.

A revolution of the sun is not the same as a revolution of consciousness, or is it? Is not all a revolution? Is not all reunification? Is not all returning? Is not all offering back to itself. . . itself? Yes!

*When one moves forward, the consciousness of great evolution becomes a revolution at the time of the reunification and that is what is upon you now.
Complete reunification!*

The Energy of Moving Forward: Spinning and Churning

You are moving forward into the time of the expanded heart, of the expanded crown¹, and of the upliftment into Divine Galactic Remembrance. As you remember, the revolution within begins, does it not? You start spinning, you start churning, and everything goes with it!

You see in the spinning and the churning, there are many different experiences. There are the experiences of the physical body. Sometimes the physical spinning and churning is not so fun. Sometimes you say I have spun and churned enough for ten people. Ok, maybe you are spinning and churning for ten people. Maybe you are. Maybe you are spinning and churning for a thousand people. . . ten thousand. . . one hundred thousand.

It is imperative for you to remember, that in the spinning and churning, and the revolution of the clock of consciousness, you like this word clock? Best we can do. (much laughter)

In the revolution of this clock of consciousness, it is imperative for you to give yourself the gift of recognition of Oneness. In the recognition of Oneness, all that is the ego, you like ego? Or we could use Gunas. We could try this. You like Gunas? You say what's a Guna? We say it is not a cereal. (Much audience laughter)

Oneness Recognition and the Gunas

There are many Gunas. There are three Gunas that exist in this realm. These Gunas, these ways that your emotional body, that your physical body, and that your spiritual body express as on this planet now are all interwoven. They are interwoven because you still have a body, do you not? If you are not sure, check! OK? If you still have a body, then you are navigating the Gunas within a realm of density.

How many times have you touched bliss?

You have touched bliss! Whether you know it or not, you have touched it. How many times have you touched the depths of that which feels like what you would call hell? How many times have you simply been in the middle, simply existing, doing, caught up day by day? Getting up, waking up, working, coming home, eating food, sleeping, then waking up to do it all again, right? All of these different experiences serve the evolution of your soul back into the revolution of consciousness. All of them!

You see, Dearest children, just because you have touched bliss and you find yourself feeling like hell, does not mean that you are not able to be in bliss again or that you have done anything wrong. You are simply navigating the cycles.

You are simply looking through all of the realms of density at this time on this planet as you are in a revolution.

This revolution completes a great cycle of expansion. In this great cycle of expansion much has come forward for you to reintegrate, know that everything, every aspect, will come forward. Not just one, every one! That is a lot!

So, as every aspect comes forward, what will come forward most often for many at the time of revolution is judgment. Is it not judgment that causes great revolutions to manifest in the realm of density? In the realm of density is it not one belief system that revolts against another? Is it not a judgment to say this is right, that is right, I am right, you are right, and of course who is wrong?

As you move forward, and give yourself the gift of Divine Reunification and integration, you must recognize you are navigating all of the phases of the Gunas at this time. All of them! All of them! You can not be immune from any. You may say, "This is not true Zadkiel, I am immune from all of it!" Good, then hold fast in your own evolution and move forward from that phase of consciousness.

Embracing Mapid Expansion....yes, Mapid!

In the time of mapid, mapid, mapid, you like that word? You say, "Zadkiel, what is that word?" It is our combination of much and rapid. We call it mapid. Yes! (much audience laughter)

You are in the time of mapid expansion. You can just walk up to people and say you are mapid. You are in the mapidness! In the mapidness it is important to remember that everything will become as if it is one. Everything will fold.

We have mentioned many, many times that time is indeed folding upon itself. Has that ever been more evident to you than at this moment now? Time is indeed becoming more fluid for you.

*As you are reconnecting back into the truth of all that has been, all that ever was, and all that will be,
which is all you have already done;
you must recognize that you have already done this.*

You have already been here before. You are consciously co-creating in your evolution now. As you consciously co-create in this evolution now, there will be much mapid revolution.

You must remember that in the time of expansion and in the time of connectivity, in the time of reunification, the cosmological effect of all that you have done, the sum total as they say is upon you right now. What do you wish to do with it? It is your choice. That is the gift of being here now, is that it is indeed your choice.

You can say, "I wish to do nothing with it. I want to go deep into density and have the best density possible." Good, celebrate those who do that. Please do! You might say, "No! I wish to look at all of this and use it for a different path, a different way." Perhaps you wish to do more of what you would consider to be of service or something of this nature. Good, do it well!

*It is simply important that you commit and do well whatever you commit to.
It is the time of conscious, conscious, conscious rapid commitment.*

Dearest ones, it is so easy to have your mind go no, no, no, while your heart says yes, yes, yes. Is it not? It is so simple to be able to sit in separation and polarity. Sitting in separation and polarity is a great and wonderful experience; it is part of why you are here. And you do not have to stay there if you do not wish. Where do you wish to go?

When was the last time you jumped up and down and danced? When was the last time you moved your body with joyous love? Not because you felt you must, simply because you wanted to. Allow the flow to come through you with great movement. Twirl, you all know Flap and Clap²? Good! Try it out sometime. To know is one thing, to do is another and it is up to you.

Embracing the Stream of Multi-dimensional Consciousness

Yet right now the portal energies are abundantly open. All seven ascension portals are already open on this planet. All of the torches are lit. There are many forms of torches are there not? All of the torches are lit. We wish for you to take time and think about that one. Just let it rapidly expand in your consciousness. As you do and as you move forward with this expanded torch understanding, give yourself the gift of being the Light that is the way.

It is a gift indeed because you embrace many, many, many aspects of many, many, many forms of being. You are but one form of being and you exist more than just here. You already know this of course. When have you last connected with the other piece of you that exists outside of here? Accept that, go deep with that. Give yourself the gift!

One way that you do this is through what you call sleep. You sleep, yes? Some of you say barely. It is ok. When you are in deep sleep, when you move through the stages of sleep, you are in the bliss state at many times. You are in a deep reconnection and understanding. When you wake up, often times the unified Guna stream of this world comes right into you and you say, "Oh my goodness! Just forgot what the bliss was about." Or you wake up and say, "Oh my goodness! I remember what the bliss is about!"

What do you choose to do in your stream? Call forth the stream of consciousness within. Give yourself the gift of the revolution. In your own revolution, you release that which has held you.

What is holding you now? What holds you? What gives you the impetus to stop and the opportunity to go? You do not need little lights, red, green, yellow. Let it go!

Of course it is important to pay attention is it not? The red light for you means stop. Often times the red is associated with the root chakra, the traditional root chakra is it not? Often times this is a stopping point. Many empower the root chakra of the traditional system of density and say, "This feels really good; staying right here. Stop!" Ok, go ahead.

Then we have the yellow do we not? The yellow chakra is a chakra that gives you the opportunity to say do I want this or not? Where is my true power? Is it not amazing that the green light is the heart and it is go! Go! Which light do you wish to have shining in front of you?

In the green, in the heart, is the power to truly go. This is where the revolution begins. This is where it all expands. This is the stream of Divine Consciousness that you are! Let it move forward. Let it move around. Let it move up and let it lift you into the truth of your own being.

The Gift of Divine Recognition

Dearest ones, your time of rapid escalation is here. We know this sounds like a broken record, no? You say Zadkiel, you have been telling us this for awhile. We say we know; it's ok. It is good to here something again, is it not? Yes! Sometimes you just need us to say look at you and say how beautiful you are. You can put that on little tape and play it over and over and over again. You can wake up to it. You are so beautiful to me! Good song! (laughter)

In the gift of the recognition, in the gift of the connection, your divine heart says go. You lift into the truth. You are able to let go of the stop and the caution. You see dearest ones; we know that you recognize that only doubt separates. Doubt is the separator. It is the great separator. It is a wondrous, wondrous vehicle of density. You come into density, you experience all this guna energy, doubt appears, and separation appears, wonderful!

Give yourself the gift of coming into complete realization of your alignment with the One. In that you are full. If you have not known lately, we shall remind you again.

Your very presence is service.

Your presence is your service. All six billion! Your presence is service. Dearest ones, you have chosen to be here. You have chosen to be here. Always recognize the gift that you are in your mere presence. If your presence is service, everything else is a bonus is it not?

You must realize your presence is service and we encourage you to recognize that the presence of each being is service. You do not have to agree with what they say. You do not have to align with what they do. Simply open your heart to recognize that whatever they are expressing, however they are expressing it, whatever they are doing, is of service because they are present. They are here. Your mere presence is service.

We wish for you not to misunderstand the word mere. We simply give this to you because we wish for you to recognize that just being here right now, on this planet right now, in this time of the great revolution of your cosmological expansion, is the greatest gift you could ever offer. You are, in this moment, a sum total of many experiences of many, many, many, many, many, many expressions. Not just the density or the biological expressions, many expressions.

Many of you say to us often, “We wish to reconnect with more.” Many cry out to us and say, “Where are our galactic brothers?” Perhaps you are the galactic brothers you are looking for! Have you looked around lately? Pay attention to what is right in front of you. Often times when we yearn to see beyond that which is right in front of us, we miss what is right in front of us, do we not?

Look into your own heart and the depth, the well of eternal knowledge and divine love is greater than you will ever experience anywhere.

Look right within your own being. Look right within your own presence. Gaze into the mirror of your soul and let the gift of your divine presence offer you the message that you are yearning to hear. All you need do is trust what you know. You are more powerful than you think. You already know. Are you trusting you? Are you trusting what is around you?

Claiming Conscious Service through Divine Connection

Many of you are realigning. Many of you are soon going to be meeting and have already begun meeting new people, new places, new experiences, much of this will challenge you. All of a sudden, why am I here at this time? Why am I meeting these people at this time? Who drug me here and why? Pay attention to the dragging. Watch the feet as they want to stay stuck in the cement. Let others help you out of the boots. The shoes are ok to leave in the cement. The feet are still free are they not?

Pay attention! Every single moment, every second, every second within a second is part of your cosmic revolution and your gift of reunification and alignment with the soul consciousness. Everything! Everything! It is simply too simple to say there are no accidents. So let that one go. You already know that. Just be present.

As you move forward with these serendipitous connections, you will find yourself expanded and challenged. You will find where you are resisting, especially among the non resisters. So many say, “I am open. I have no resistance, but I won’t do this.” Ok, you know your boundaries very good. Pay attention. Pay attention. Find where your resistance is and when you float, feel the gift of Divine Connection. Float often. Flap and clap. Move the Divine Portal. Bring the energy to you.

Dearest children you are in Nirvana right now. Simply allow it to be present for you. Give yourself the gift of divine connection. Greet each other star to star³ and hold that consciousness every minute of every day. Every minute, every day, every second, every day! Go within the moment of the moment. Give yourself the gift of conscious service, conscious service. You wish to be of service?

So many cry out, "What is my service? What do I do? Oh dear God help me. Why am I here?" You ever know these questions? We hear them often.

*We wish for you to know one thing, you are the service!
Let go of what the brain wants to control and be in the joyous recognition that right now in this moment you are that which you seek.*

It is already upon you. Celebrate more! Times are tough, celebrate more! You are depressed, have fun! It is that simple. You say no it's not. We say if you want it to be, it is ok. Give yourself the gift.

You see Dearest children, bless your brain. Yes, bless the brain. Take it out for a little walk. Put it to bed early with a little milk and cookie and then you go play. Get it a babysitter, my goodness! (audience laughter) Help the brain move forward. As you do, your joy will escalate. If you scorn, and if you are skeptical, then do it well. Be a good skeptic! Because in skepticism you simply say I love myself enough that I must know more. Ok! When you meet others who are just that way, love them for their presence. In their presence they are giving you a gift. Always remember that.

The revolution has begun. It is not coming, it is already here! How do you choose to navigate it? What do you choose to do?

We will take questions.

Question: Is there a connection between Vaastu and the Avesa healing energies?

Archangel Zadkiel: Oh you ask trick question, you already know this answer! Yes, dearest child in many ways, we wish not to play games, we are just having fun. Yes, there is a great connection between the Vaastu and the Avesa. Dearest child, the Avesa has not been on this planet for quite awhile as you know because the responsibility of the energy is so great, that it must be used for the enhancement of Light only. The Vaastu has been well kept. It has been available, yet it has been well kept.

It is now the time for the Vaastu to also become largely recognized and more understood. In the recognition and the understanding of these energies there is a powerful integration. The two have been separate for awhile. Bringing the two back together will unlock many energies. These portals have been available; they have been as you would say hovering above the planet waiting for reconnection.

Each time you breathe the breath of the Avesa, you send a signal out that says, "I am ready and I understand." We have elevated to the time where we recognize. Each time the Vaastu is applied with loving principles, it sends the same energy. Yes dearest child the vibration is identical. Many blessings.

Same Questioner: From where does thought emerge?

Archangel Zadkiel: (Zadkiel conveys a deep energy message via silent eye contact to the questioner.) Yes breathe. We first wish for all of you to understand what we are doing here now. This is your true form of communication and we thank you for allowing us to model this. It is ok. Each of you here never needs to ask with the word. Each of you here merely needs to be in the divine presence as this one models for you to be able to receive and understand. You ask where thought comes from. We ask you where in Divine Consciousness are you ever present? This question filling you with the energy of Divine Connection moves you forward into a greater harmony on the harmonic wave of the impulse of Light from the Godhead of All That Is. It resonates each and every presence. Yes, there we are. Yes.

Each of you is receiving an emanation at this time. You may be feeling great pressure in your head. It may feel as if a big, big weight is around your forehead. You may be saying Oh my goodness I don't feel anything. Breathe. Go up into the head. For each of you is receiving many answers to many questions. Within the next 48 hours these will unravel for you. Many blessings. This is a good thing, big breath. We encourage all to do.

Question: I am feeling residues from past lives of being a monk and a nun and stuff like that, habits and behaviors. What more can I do to clear?

Archangel Zadkiel: Dearest child, we love that you said habits. (audience laughter) We found that quite fun. It is important for you to recognize that when you can find the joy of these experiences, they will no longer control you. Find the joy of them; find the delight in the service. Indeed in this presence right now as with all that are here right now there is nothing else you need to do. You have done. All of you are at the time of celebration. Doing is of density. Celebrating is multi-dimensional. So where do you wish to be? Embrace, have fun, find the love, thank those that still carry this energy for showing you that which you have already done and love them on their journey. For it is their time to be in culmination in such a way. Recognize precious one.....

(The Benevolent Ones come in....)

Benevolent Ones Speak:

Hello. We have been waiting and simply wished to interrupt. (audience laughter)

Dearest One in your service to God, all is always in perfection is it not? Yes. Let yourself be in the loving recognition and you and you. Each of you. Your heart cries for even deeper connection. We see this. We send you a Crystalline ray to offer your heart great expansion and connection to the desired one you seek. Home is a great gift is it not? Always cherish the gifts as they are given. Love is a presence, it is not an emotion. It is a great witness as you witness us. We witness you.

In the beauty of All That Is from the many worlds as you call them, the reunification of a soul with a soul is present in so many ways. Dearest ones the recognition of the beauty is abounding. It is time to recognize all that love is.

Oh dearest ones, breathe. Yes, breathe dearest ones. With each breath expand your love. With each breath recognize your truth. With each breath, know that we see you. We have always seen you. Your presence matters. You matter. We offer you great, great honor and hello and reconnection. In this time of your time all time is here.

We wish to continue offering to you an attunement to hear the words that we do not need vocal cords to speak. Yes? Simply put your hands on your heart. We begin with the tone of home. Breathe, close your eyes, it is easier and you are hearing. It is coming in through the heart, up through the pineal, out the ears and back up again. We breathe it to you as a loving dragon breathes the flame of transmutation. Call forth this gift. We connect often. As you bring your attention to your body, seek where in your body this energy wishes to go and let it go. Receive this gift as the gift that it is. Dearest ones, many, many gifts are being showered on you now.

We ask you to simply receive. There is nothing you need do. There is nothing you need control. Just be! We love you dearly. You are, you are, you are! You may relax.

Practice the wordless knowing. Practice the wordless knowing. You wish to come into another dimension; the wordless knowing finds you there. You already know this, for you are this. In this moment observe whatever you feel, whatever it is and be present.

So dearest children it is. So you are. So it has been. So it will be.

Many blessings from your divine home of Love, Oneness, and abundant truth.

May you enter into the eternal Light of Divine Oneship in all you do, all you say, all you breathe, and all you experience.
